

To qualify for absentee voting in Missouri for the remainder of 2020, a voter must claim one of the following 7 reasons:

- 1) Will be absent from their voting jurisdiction on Election Day;
- 2) Are incapacitated or confined due to illness or physical disability, or caring for an incapacitated person;
- 3) Are restricted by religious belief or practice;
- 4) Are employed by an election authority;
- 5) Are incarcerated, but have retained all voting qualifications;
- 6) Certified participation in the address confidentiality (SAFE at Home) program established under sections 589.660 to 589.681 because of safety concerns;
- 7) I have contracted or am in an at-risk category for contracting or transmitting severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2, pursuant to Section 115.277.6, RSMo.

At-risk voters are individuals who: • Are 65 years of age or older • Have serious heart conditions • Are immunocompromised • Have liver disease • Live in a long-term care facility licensed under Chapter 198, RSMo. • Have chronic lung disease or moderate to severe asthma • Have chronic kidney disease and are undergoing dialysis • Have diabetes

ATTENTION: FEAR of contracting Covid-19 is NOT an approved reason for voting absentee.
