Nonprofit Organizations Given Opportunity to Raise Money as Election Day Workers

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (July 14, 2016) – The Kansas City Board of Election Commissioners (KCEB) is recruiting local nonprofit organizations to sign up to serve as election workers for its new Adopt-A-Poll program. Adopt-A-Poll allows community groups a new way to serve the community while simultaneously raising funds for their worthy causes. Monies earned by Adopt-A-Poll workers will be sent directly to the nonprofit organization identified on their application. An election worker can earn up to $215.00 for their organization by working election day and attending a training class.

There are specific requirements that each volunteer and nonprofit organization must meet. Visit www.kceb.org/elections/adoptapoll to learn more about the Adopt-A-Poll program. For more information or to sign up to participate, interested nonprofit organizations should contact Deborah Sams at deborah@kceb.org, or Wesley Barnes wesley@kceb.org, or call us at 816-842-4820.
