NEW COMMUNICATIONS AND OUTREACH SPECIALIST AT KANSAS CITY ELECTION BOARD

(Kansas City, MO) --- The Kansas City Election Board (KCEB) announces Sarah Dunkle as its new Communications and Outreach Specialist. Dunkle joined the KCEB on August 8, 2011.

In this new position, Dunkle will be responsible for developing public outreach and education programs through print, electronic and new media resources. She will maintain updates on the website, as well as helping implement new designs to the website. Other duties include developing press lists, press materials, informational packets and assisting with training materials and presentations.

Dunkle recently graduated from the University of Central Missouri with a Bachelor of Science degree in Public Relations, with a minor in Marketing. She interned at the Lee's Summit Educational Foundation, where she assisted with website design, press releases, marketing materials, and event planning.

"I am really looking forward to starting off my career path with the KCEB and learning all of the exciting aspects of elections," said Dunkle.

Director of Elections, Shawn Kieffer, stated that he is excited to have Ms. Dunkle on board for the upcoming Presidential election year. "She will be a great advocate helping us get our information out to the public."
