Missouri Ethics Commission Hosts Campaign Finance Training Seminar

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (May 14, 2014) – The Missouri Ethics Commission, in partnership with the Kansas City Board of Election Commissioners, will host a campaign finance training seminar at 6 p.m., Thursday, May 15 at Union Station in Town Hall, 30 W. Pershing Road, Kansas City, MO.

Betsy Byers and Juanita Mummert with the Missouri Ethics Commission will review filing procedures, rules and regulations, campaign forms, reporting procedures, contribution limits and Missouri statutes that apply to financing political campaigns.

Elected officials, candidates for office, treasurers of campaign committees, political parties and continuing committees are encouraged to attend.

The seminar is free, but reservations are requested and can be made by calling Lauri Ealom at (816) 329-2036 or e-mailing her at lauri@kceb.org.

Parking is available for $3 in the West Union Station garage.
